

ABOUT THE AACFL

The AACFL is an educational institution, dedicated to enhancing the legal profession through advanced financial education.

Their mission is to provide innovative financial training programs designed to increase the financial knowledge of attorneys dealing with financial issues in their practice.

HOW TO BECOME CERTIFIED

The Certified Financial Litigator training course is taught by university professors, Certified Public Accountants, Financial Experts from Morgan Stanley and other accomplished experts in the area of financial education.

Upon completion of the course the attorney must pass an extensive exam covering all aspects of financial litigation such as financial statements, investments, personal, corporate and partnership tax returns and all the documents used to compile them, such as forms W-2, 1099-B, 1099-D, 1099-DIV, 1099-INT, 1099-OID, 1099-MISC, Schedules A, B, C, D, E, K-1, etc.

MARK T. WAKENIGHT, CFL

Mark T. Wakenight is a Founding Member of the Illinois Chapter of the AACFL. He has completed the AACFL training course, has passed the qualifying exam and has attained AACFL certification as a Certified Financial Litigator.

JD 1988, U. of Kansas
BA Economics 1981, U. of Chicago
2001 – present, Wakenight & Associates, P.C.

Intelligent, Diligent, Reliable Representation

CALL NOW 708. 848. 3159
for FREE CONSULTATION

shutterstock.com • 1043656987

* The Illinois Supreme Court does not recognize certifications of specialties and the CFL certificate is not a requirement to practice law in Illinois.